A fusion of the past, present and future, the new YMCA Anthony Bowen will honor the legacy of the first African American Y in the U.S. and its long time members, while reaching out to new residents seeking a place where they can belong.

Located in the vibrant U Street Corridor, the residents of 14W can take advantage of the abundant retail and entertainment options throughout the community. With access to Metro, an eclectic collection of retail and dining, active nightlife and a wealth of area amenities, the 231 luxury apartments that comprise 14W allow residents to take advantage of everything that this exciting area has to offer.
